"I contracted a severe cold and cough while on the front end of a After roll call and inquiring after abstreet car during the sereve weather we had this winter," says Mr. W. A. eGorge, who lives at 1418 Greenwood avenue, Nashville, Tennessee in his statement given January 28, 1918. "I be president opened the meeting at sentees, the class was turned over was in such shape that I was hardly able to work and came near having pneumonia. I tried a number of remedies and the doctor, but did not improve any until I began using Lung-Vita. In three days I felt much bet-ter, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was awful. Now the cold is broken, cough all gone, and I just feel fine. I know that Lung-Vita did work in my case and believe it is the finest medicine in the world for coughs and colds."
